California Missions Unit Culminating Project

Author: Tricia Weber
Subject: History-Social Science
Grade Level: 4

Cross-Curricular Integration: English-Language Arts, Technology
Instructional Setting: Small Group or Whole Class
Student Population: At Grade Level to Advanced
Description of Lesson: Students will use their knowledge of the Spanish Missions of California to create a video presentation.

Objectives

With their group, students will take on roles of individuals involved in Mission History and create a video presentation using the historical perspective of their chosen characters.

Standards

California History-Social Science Content Standards, Grade 4

4.2.3 Students describe the social, political, cultural, and economic life and interactions among people of California from the pre-Columbian societies to the Spanish mission and Mexican rancho periods. Describe the Spanish exploration and colonization of California, including the relationships among soldiers, missionaries, and Indians (e.g., Juan Crespi, Junipero Serra, Gaspar de Portola).

4.2.4 Students describe the social, political, cultural, and economic life and interactions among people of California from the pre-Columbian societies to the Spanish mission and Mexican rancho periods. Describe the mapping of, geographic basis of, and economic factors in the placement and function of the Spanish missions; and understand how the mission system expanded the influence of Spain and Catholicism throughout New Spain and Latin America.

4.2.5 Students describe the social, political, cultural, and economic life and interactions among people of California from the pre-Columbian societies to the Spanish mission and Mexican rancho periods. Describe the daily lives of the people, native and nonnative, who occupied the presidios, missions, ranchos, and pueblos.

Listening and Speaking: Organization and Delivery of Oral Communication

1.5 Present effective introductions and conclusions that guide and inform the listener's understanding of important ideas and evidence.

1.8 Use details, examples, anecdotes, or experiences to explain or clarify information.

1.9 Use volume, pitch, phrasing, pace, modulation, and gestures appropriately to enhance meaning.
International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) National Educational Technology Standards, Grades 3 - 5

Performance Indicators:
5. Use technology tools (e.g., multimedia authoring, presentation, Web tools, digital cameras, scanners) for individual and collaborative writing, communication, and publishing activities to create knowledge products for audiences inside and outside the classroom. (3, 4)

Relevant Standards:
3. Technology productivity tools
   • Students use technology tools to enhance learning, increase productivity, and promote creativity.
   • Students use productivity tools to collaborate in constructing technology-enhanced models, prepare publications, and produce other creative works.

4. Technology communications tools
   • Students use telecommunications to collaborate, publish, and interact with peers, experts, and other audiences.
   • Students use a variety of media and formats to communicate information and ideas effectively to multiple audiences.

Technology
Software Applications: Word Processor, Web Browser, Optional: Video Editing Software
Computer Equipment: Computer, Internet Access, Optional: Computer System capable of Running Editing Software
Video Equipment: Video Camera
Teacher Technology Competency Level (CTAP2 Rubric):
   • General Computer Skills: Intermediate
   • Internet: Introductory
   • Word Processing: Introductory

Procedure
Time Required: 5 Class Periods of Approximately 50 Minutes Each

Materials and Resources used by Teachers and Students:
Teacher: California Missions Video Assignment Page, Rubric
Students: Props/Costumes as needed

Preparation for Teacher:
This project is intended for use as a culmination of students’ study of the Mission period. To effectively complete the assignment students will need to have explored the history and motivations behind the Mission Period, the events of Mission life, and the effect that the Mission period had on California’s native peoples as well as the future of the State as a whole.
Session 1

Introduction
Brainstorm with students to develop a list of some of the people involved in the Mission period (Fr. Serra, Fr. Lasuen, the Native Americans, the King, etc.) Lead a discussion with students about what life would have been like for those people—include similarities and differences.

Body
Pass out California Missions Video Assignment Page
Discuss assignment with students, making sure to point out requirements and expectations.
Assign (or let students pick) groups. Note: Groups of 3 – 4 work best.

Temporary Close
Let students meet with their groups to brainstorm ideas for their videos. At the end of this time they must have an idea for their video and turn in the Video Idea Section of the Assignment Page.

Session 2

Introduction
Give students 5 – 10 minutes to meet with their group. Explain that this class period will be used to conduct any research that might be needed to complete their video.

Body
Allow students to use the computer and reference materials/books to research their chosen video ideas. Using the word processor, students are to type up a brief video outline that includes the following items:
- Group Members
- Names of Characters
- Setting
- General Idea (what’s going on in the video)
- Basic Outline/Timeline of Events

Temporary Close
Collect materials to finish during the next session.

Session 3

Introduction
Distribute materials to students. Remind students about practicing proper oral presentation techniques (volume, pitch, etc.)

Body
Complete and print their brief video outline and meet with their group members to start rehearsals.

Temporary Close:
Collect completed video outlines.
Session 4 - Rehearsal Day

Introduction
None

Body
Meet with and observe each group to assess their progress and group interactions.

Temporary Close
Collect materials and verify groups are ready.

Session 5 - Performance Day

Introduction:
Explain to students the ‘plan’ for the day’s activities. Each group will be called up to perform their video idea. Taping will be done by the teacher and the audience must be reminded to observe silent audience behavior and that any sounds (chairs, snickering, whispering, etc.) will be heard on the video.

Body:
Start taping presentations and plan for approximately seven minutes for each group.

Close:
Have students share one new thing they learned or an interesting fact that they didn’t know about before the presentations. (This could also be done in writing during transitions instead of orally at the end.)

Assessment
Students will be individually assessed according to the attached Rubric.

Reflection
This lesson has not yet been implemented with a fourth grade class. I have completed similar lessons based on other content and found that they have been a wonderful way for students to showcase their understanding of historical topics.

The video editing portion of this lesson has been left as an optional assignment since it is unlikely that most fourth graders have worked with video editing software. Having students tape and edit their own videos IS within the capabilities of most fourth graders, but additional time would need to be taken to introduce the hardware and software involved.
California Missions Video Assignment

Purpose: You are going to perform a short skit that shows your understanding of what life was like during the Mission Period.

Possible Ideas:
- An Interview of a Historical Figure
- A Reenactment of a Scene from Daily Life at the Mission
- A Discussion with the King over his Motivations
- A Discussion with Native Americans about their Lives
- Other ideas that show your understanding of events during the Mission Period.

Requirements:
- You and your group can choose to be any of the historical figures that we have read about that relate to the Spanish Missions in California. If you need to make up a character’s name, that’s fine, but the character’s actions should be faithful to the type of person they are.
- Each member of your group must be a human (no animals) with a speaking part in the skit.
- Skits must be 3 – 4 minutes long. Points may be deducted for skits that do not meet this requirement!
- Props/Clothing may be brought from home, but must be cleared with the teacher beforehand.

Reminders:
- Be organized and ask questions if you are unsure.
- Time your skit! Points may be deducted if you do not meet the time requirements.
- Be prepared for follow up questions after the video has been taped.

When your idea is ready have ONE member complete the bottom of this form, tear it off, and turn it in so that I can read about what you plan to do for your video.
